Wayside Notes

By "J. M."

Lexington raised $3500 toward the $100,000 road fund, this week, for use in completing the gap in the Dixie-Boone Highway, thru Rockcastle and Laurel counties. The Phoenix Hotel management gave $500 of this amount.

"Nikalgin", a victory over pain—an anaesthetic, discovered by Gordon Edwards, 35, of Milwaukee, is proving the most wonderful anaesthetic and anesthetic discovery of modern times. It is now in daily use in all the French and British hospitals in Paris and on the war front. The manner of application is by pressure jet to the outer person and not injected. The patient does not lose consciousness but can watch the physician amputate his arm or leg without feeling any pain from the operation. Burns from gas or other sources are relieved of pain immediately upon application of the anesthesia. This great work of relieving pain is carried on without expense to the government whose soldiers are receiving the benefits. Miss Morgan of New York and other Americans furnishing the money. Howard Gordon, the discoverer, has not asked or received a cent for his discovery, but is kept busy in the various hospitals looking to the applications of his "Nikalgin," which is also proving to have wonderful curative powers as well as an anesthetic.

The labor problem is worrying Clark county people. So many have gone from here during past three years to Ohio and other factories and manufacturing plants to the north that the scarcity of labor here is proving serious. Many of the farmers and the road builders take their forces back and forward between town and country in wagons, buggies, auto or auto trucks, daily. Laborers don't have to hunt work, works hunts them, besides furnishing the transportation between home and place of employment. The prices during hemp and tobacco cutting rules high and wages are good at all times, with plenty of work and laborers few.

Four deaths from automobile accidents have occurred in this county within last two months. The latest took place on Thursday of last week six miles west of Winchester at Pine Grove station when a freight train struck the machine of Squire Sam Pursley, inflicting injuries from which he died four hours later. The writer saw the machine Friday while on his way to Frankfort. The auto was thrown against a telephone poles with such force that it was literally smashed into a scrap heap. This is the fourth death to the credit of that fatalistic road crossing, within three years. One man Carlisle Baldwin was drowned in Kentucky river at Jackson Ferry Sunday. A carpenter killed here last week by a falling scaffold.

One among the many meritorious moves made by Governor Stanley was his proclamation issued to the people of Kentucky, under date of September 20th, naming Sunday October 14th as GOOD ROADS DAY. "The present conditions render the construction and maintenance of public highways necessary alike to our domestic prosperity and National Defense, and it is of prime importance that popular attention be called to the wisdom of a concerted and organized effort to extend our system of public roads to co-ordinate them with inter-state thoroughfares and to preserve them by capable and scientific management in the highest attainable state of efficiency.

In an earnest endeavor to bring the importance of good roads before the people of Kentucky, to a greater extent than heretofore, the State Highway

Department is mailing hundreds of copies of the Governor's proclamation, reaching all localities, particular effort being made to reach every minister in the Commonwealth requesting them to appeal to their congregations, on the above date, asking every one to take greater interest in this great highway work which will tend toward betterment in all lines of legitimate endeavor.

Ministers, especially those in the counties thru which Boone Way is routed, are requested to write out what portion of their sermons bearing on the highway subject, and to send a copy of same to Jim Maret, (the Boone Way man), 11 Pratt Bldg., Winchester, Ky. These papers will prove mighty interesting reading, a number of which it is proposed to publish.

No matter what momentous subject may be before the people there are usually scores of men who imagine they have a remedy and seem to think they can solve any problem, regardless of whether or not they have ever given the subject serious study. They are easily guided, in most instances, by hearsay talk and prejudices and in a majority of cases their proposed remedies, especially in highway work, would not only suit local conditions and might be totally unfitted even in the adjoining counties much less in the majority of the counties in the state.

The State Highway Department is necessarily compelled to work with the officials of practically every county in the state and can tell with a great deal of accuracy what laws are best suited for the entire Commonwealth.

It would be a most unwise move on the part of the Department officials to advise or endorse any other than the very best laws on the subject because they are the ones, more than anyone else, that have to administer the law and would be the most adversely affected by bad laws.

To make a long story short every proposed law should either be drawn by the State Highway Department or else have the approval of the Highway Officials before any serious consideration is given such bills by legislators or the people of the State.

There is yet needed some highly important highway legislation which will be brought before the next meeting of the Kentucky Legislature for consideration and action thereon.

Engineer Will Caldwell who made the trip in a Dodge car, from Detroit last week, says Michigan has some mighty fine roads as well as Ohio tho he found some pretty rough sledging on a number of the highways in the latter state.

THE GAP IN THE DIXIE HIGHWAY

The route of the Dixie Highway was definitely settled upon two years ago. Since that time a surprising amount of work has been done on both the Cincinnati and the Louisville branches of the highway, as well as on the southern stretch between Chattanooga and Florida.

In the case of the eastern or Cincinnati division, such progress has been made that save for a seven-mile stretch in the Kentucky mountains, a continuous roadway between the Great Lakes and Florida is either in existence, or in course of construction. This gap is in Rockcastle and Laurel counties, Kentucky, and amounts to a total of only about seven miles.

It will require one hundred thousand dollars to close the gap. Rockcastle and Laurel counties can not pay for the work. The State of Kentucky, however, offers to provide fifty thousand dollars, and a committee of Cincinnatians under the leadership of Mr. Foley of the Cincinnati Automobile club, is trying to raise the balance. Twenty six thousand dollars have already been secured and twenty-four thousand dollars additional will assure the completion of the work.

The Dixie Highway between Cincinnati and Chattanooga leads through some of the most attractive mountain country in the United States. The scenery in the Cumberland Range is wild and beautiful. Hotels are being built along the line of the road and it is safe to predict that when completed the Dixie Highway will be one of the most popular touring routes in the United States.

The completion of the Cincinnati division of the Dixie Highway will mean a great deal to this city. There are thousands of automobiles touring in one part of the United States or another every day in the year. The amount of money spent by tourists in States which have developed a reputation for good roads is very large. As soon as it can be announced that the eastern division of the Dixie Highway has been completed, automobiles by the tens of thousands will pour through Cincinnati. This means hundreds of thousands—perhaps millions—of dollars annually to our hotels, our theatres and our stores. It will mean advertisement for the city and increased prosperity in many ways.

This is not a particular propitious time for the raising of money. Even at this time, however, it should not be difficult to raise twenty-four thousand dollars in Cincinnati for so important a work as the completion of the eastern branch of the Dixie Highway.—Cincinnati Times-Star.

Liberty Loan Bonds

The people of the County will be asked to buy Liberty Loan Bonds from Oct. 1st to Oct. 27th. These bonds will be of denominations of $50 and up to $10,000, bearing 4 per cent interest, payable semi-annually and free from taxation, making them a good investment.

A government bond is as good as the money bearing its stamp, and these bonds will increase in value and shortly after the war is over will sell above face value, if one desires to part with them. All banks of our county should, and we think will, help their depositors procure Liberty Loan Bonds on terms that will be convenient for them to meet. Rock-castle county should get out of the rut and buy her quota of these bonds. Every man and woman with any means can afford to be patriotic, when they can do so, by making a safe investment.

Special from Somerset dated Sept. 23rd, says:

For the first time in the history of Pulaski county a Republican rally was held here Saturday night for the purpose of advocating the election of the Democratic candidates for county of fices. Among the speakers in the big Circuit Court room were Judge James Denton, former Collector of Internal Revenue; Judge H. C. Kennedy, former legislator and candidate for Circuit Judge; County Judge R. F. Jasper, Charles Gragg, Republican candidate for the Legislature in the last primary, and H. H. Smith, former County School Superintendent.

The speakers denounced the Republican ticket as the "Bull Moose ticket," and said it is unworthy of the support of true Republicans. The Democratic ticket was pledged 1,500 Republican votes, which would insure the election of Cecil Williams, Democratic candidate for the Legislature, and the entire county ticket. Judge Roscoe C. Tartar is the Republican candidate for County Judge. The Republican speakers are billed for meetings all over the county until election, and County Attorney G. W. Shadon and former County Superintendent Wesley J. Barnes, both Republicans, will join them. The split in the Republican ranks may have an effect on the candidacy of Edwin P. Morrow, if he runs again.

German must go out of the Danville Public Schools. This is the verdict of the pupils themselves. Some time ago Professor Carnegie suggested that the courses in German be dropped that French or some other language be substituted. The suggestion was met with approval generally but it was decided to let the pupils themselves decide the question. This they have done and in unmistakable terms. German must go. Not a single student voted to retain it. French and English are now the languages par excellence.—Advocate.

WILL CONCRETE SHIPS SOLVE U-BOAT PROBLEM?

The first concrete ship to be built in Norway has been launched. It is to be followed by great numbers of this rare but well-tried type of vessel. It is Norway's answer to the U boat peril.

The launching took place in the presence of Premier Knutsen, who is himself an old civil engineer, and he complimented the work enthusiastically. He said it was "epoch-making." A great point in favor of this type of vessel is the speed and economy with which the hull can be made. In this case only three weeks was required from the start to the launching. The frame or mold can be used for each later ship of the same size, and it is thought that hereafter the hulls can be made in ten days.

When the wooden false work is in place the steel reinforcing rods are quickly set up, and the rest is only a matter of pouring the concrete. The material quickly hardens, and as long as it stays in the water it grows harder and stronger.

This first ship is of 200 tons only, but false work for others of 500 and 1000 tons is being prepared. Could they not be made non-sinkable by having the hull and decks very thick but filled with a great number of small air-chambers, thus practically making every ship a lifeboat? This plan was proposed to our own Government, months ago, by Current Events.

Carefully Treat Children's Colds

Neglect of children's colds often lays the foundation of serious lung trouble. On the other hand, it is harmful to continually dose delicate little stomachs with internal medicines or to keep the children always indoors.

Plenty of fresh air in the bedroom and a good application of Vick's "Vapo-Rub" Salve over the throat and chest at the first sign of trouble, will keep the little chaps free from colds without injuring their digestions. 25c, 50c, or $1.00.

VICK'S VAPORUB SALVE

The Council of National Defense

Crop reports show a decided shortage in the present year's wheat crop of the world, and a marked increase in corn crops in this country. There are many reasons why wheat should be saved for our army and the armies of our allies. 1st. There is more nutrition to the pound; 2nd. The people of Europe do not know how to prepare corn products for food; 3rd. A soldier is entitled to the most palatable and easily digested food. For these and other reasons we will be expected to use more corn bread than in past years, and indications now are that we will, from scarcity, be forced to consume less wheat bread. So we advise all farmers to assort their corn in a way to have a sufficiency of well-matured and sound corn for bread, as well as well selected seed corn.

HAS A HIGH OPINION OF CHAMBERLAIN'S TABLETS.

"I have a high opinion of Chamberlain's Tablets for biliousness and as a laxative," writes Mrs. C. A. Barnes, Charles' ton, Ill. "I have never found anything so mild and pleasant to use. My brother has also used these tablets with satisfactory results."

The refusal of the War department for the Masons of Atlanta to establish a lodge at Hattiesburg, Miss., will receive a vigorous protest from the Masons all over the country. At every Camp is to be found the Knights of Columbus and to the great Masonic order there is no satisfactory reason to be given why their organization should be excluded.

STOMACH TROUBLE

Mr. Marion Holcomb, of Nancy, Ky., says: "For quite a long while I suffered with stomach troubles. I would have pains and a heavy feeling after my meals, a most disagreeable taste in my mouth. If I ate anything with butter, oil or grease, I would spit it up. I began to have regular sick headache. I had used pills and tablets, but after a course of these, I would be constipated. It just seemed to tear my stomach all up. I found they were no good at all for my trouble. I heard

SUTTON & MCBEE

Willis McKenzie and party returning from Lexington last night must evidently found the grade between here and Brodhead rough sailing. At 8 o'clock last night they reached the Shafer hill 3 miles west of town, where they hung up. At 11 o'clock Herbert Cox, Hyatt Crawford and Lige Cummins started in a Ford to pull them in. They got a little beyond Gus Staverson's when the "jitney" sank to the axle in the grade and there the relief corps had to stop. Leaving the car the boys walked the rest of the way. On reaching the belated party they found Messrs. McKenzie and Thompson occupying both seats of the car peacefully sleeping while Mrs. McKenzie was performing sentinel duty. Fred McFerron and Wilburn Miller had walked to town earlier in the night to bring the message and send the relief crew. The party reached Mt. Vernon in safety at 3:30 A. M.

Sweaters for father, mother, sister and brother at Fish's.

A party of young people of the Wildie section explored Salt Peter Cave near Mullins Station Sunday. Those going were Misses Lou, Edith, Bernice, Annie and Addie Phillips, Margie and Sadie Parsons, Bertha and Vula Reynolds and Sallie Stewart. The young men were Bogle Parsons, Willie Hiatt, Will and Gibson Stewart, Jesse and Charley Fish, Allen Smith, Manual and Brother Reynolds, Bradley Sigmon and Bradley Burdette. They carried plenty of rations and had a fine dinner with enough left to serve another meal or two, but when they came out of the cave after dinner they found their rations for the next meal missing. They are not calling any names but they think they know the guilty hungry party.

Every thing for men, women and children to wear.

PEOPLE SPEAK WELL OF CHAMBERLAIN'S TABLETS.

"I have been selling Chamberlain's Tablets for about two years and heard such good reports from my customers that I concluded to give them a trial myself, and can say that I do not believe there is another preparation of the kind equal to them," writes G. A. McBride, Headford, Ont. If you are troubled with indigestion or constipation give them a trial. They will do you good.

EXPERIENCE THE BEST TEACHER.

It is generally admitted that experience is the best teacher, but should we not make use of the experience of others as well as our own? The experience of a thousand persons is more to be depended upon than that of one individual. Many thousands of persons have used Chamberlain's Cough Remedy for coughs with the best results, which shows it to be a thoroughly reliable preparation for those diseases. Try it. It is prompt and effective and pleasant to take.

THE ROAD BUILDER.

BY EDGAR A. GURST.

Dedicated to Jim Maret, President of The Boone Way

I do not care for garments fine,
I do not care for medals bright;
I have no wish to quench with wine
My thirst when I go home at night.
I'm satisfied with work to do,
And I'm content to bear my load
If only I can carve and hew
For those I love a better road.
I have no wish for luxury
If I must live it all alone;
Nor do I toil that I may be
By many strangers better known
If I were here to toil for self
I'd have a very simple code,
And I'd need very little peff—
But I'm the builder of a road.
I'm on this earth to pioneer
For those who follow after me,
According to my service here
Their chance for splendid life will be.
Into the future I must tread
Nor whimper at present goal;
Tis mine to blaze the path ahead.
I am the builder of a road
I do not shirk what task I find,
I dare not falsely step aside,
Nor leave the tangled brush behind.
My pathway must be clear and wide.
For they will tread the way I go,
They'll come to reap the seed I sowed
When I'm sleeping in "Blindwood" 'neath the snow;
I'm the builder of a road.
It is for them I face the front
And strive to keep my pathway straight,
It is for them I bear the blent
Of selfishness and bitter hate.
That they may know a smoother way,
That they may bear a lighter load,
I, smiling, face the heat of day—
I'm the builder of a road.

RICH FIELDS

Anthens, Sept. 22—American agricultural is to be used on a huge scale, to develop the rich agricultural resources of Macedonia and Thessaly, which have lain for ages in an undeveloped state. One of the largest orders ever given by Greece has just been placed with United States concerns, and the first shipment of 200 farm tractors, 1,500 automobiles, and a whole shipland of other large implements left New York on the first of the Greek liners to sail since the Entente blockade was raised.

A company with $8,000,000 capital has just been founded to carry on this development of Macedonia and Thessaly. It is chiefly Greek money, with some French and American. But part of the plan called for utilizing modern American methods, by which farming is conducted in the western states on a large scale. The ancient methods of ploughing and harvesting still in Thessaly and lower Greece, and this will be the first time that the big steam farm tractors have been operated here on a large scale. Even the primitive wooden plough is used by many peasants, but at Volo, in Thessaly iron and steel ploughs have been turned out for some time past.

This development of the Balkan granaries on a large scale is one of the necessities forced on Europe by the war. All of the countries have suddenly realized that they could not feed themselves in the pinch of war. Greece alone has bought about $15,000,000 worth of grain every year from the United States, Russia and Bulgaria. With these countries cut off by submarines and war conditions, Greece is now trying to get wheat from India. The other Balkan states are in the same condition. They have lots of idle land but are "feeding themselves from America and beyond seas."

The formation of this new company has resulted from this determination, encouraged by the government, to develop the fertile Balkan regions so Greece and the other Balkan countries may hope to be self supporting and even contribute to the grain supply of the rest of Europe. Macedonia virtually is a virgin soil, very rich, and capable of large crops. The Macedonia tobacco already commands high prices.
